DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for woman's weaknesses and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle wrapper all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

"Favorite Prescription," too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are made, and don't forget that no other medicines put up for sale through druggists for domestic use can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonials" so conspicuously flaunted before the public, in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and draging-down sensations in lower abdomen, accompanied by weakening and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic drains and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing as above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

How Meats are Prepared.

The report of Messrs. James B. Reynolds and Chas. P. Neill concerning meat packing in Chicago, submitted to Congress yesterday, by President Roosevelt, will be read with interest. The following are some of the extracts:

Calves, sheep, and hogs that have died en route are thrown out upon the platforms where cars are unloaded. On a single platform on one occasion we counted 15 dead hogs, on the next ten dead hogs. The only excuse given for delay in removal was that so often heard—the expense.

An absence of cleanliness was found everywhere in the handling of meat being prepared for the various meat-food products. In some of the largest establishments sides that are sent to what is known as the boning room are thrown in a heap upon the floor. The workers climb over these heaps of meat, select the pieces they wish, and frequently throw them down upon the dirty floor beside their working bench. Even in cutting the meat upon the bench, the work is usually held pressed against their aprons, and these aprons were, as a rule, indiscribably filthy. They were made in most cases of leather or of rough sacking and bore long accumulated grease and dirt. In only a few places were suitable oilcloth aprons worn. Moreover, men were seen to climb from the floor and stand, with shoes dirty with the refuse of the floors, on the tables upon which the meat was handled. They were seen at the lunch hour sitting on the tables on the spot on which the meat product was handled, and all this under the very eye of the superintendent of the room, showing that this was the common practice.

Nothing shows more strikingly the general indifference to matters of cleanliness and sanitation than do the lavatories for both men and women. The prevailing type is made by cutting off a section of the workroom by a thin wooden partition rising to within a few feet of the ceiling. These privies usually ventilate into the workroom. Many are located in the inside corners of the workrooms, and thus have no outside opening whatever. They are furnished with a row of seats, generally without even side partitions. These rooms are sometimes used as cloakrooms by the employees. Lunch rooms constructed in the same manner, by boarding off a section of the workroom, often adjoin the privies, the odors of which add to the generally insanitary state of the atmosphere. Abominable as the above-named conditions are, the one that affects most directly and seriously the cleanliness of the food products is the frequent absence of any lavatory provisions. Washing sinks are either not furnished at all or are small and dirty. Neither are towels, soap, or toilet conveniences. Men and women return directly from these places to plunge their unwashed hands into the meat to be converted into such food products as sausages, dried beef, and other compounds. Some of the lavatories are situated at a long distance from the workrooms, and men use the killing floors or corners of the workrooms. Hence, in some cases the fumes of the urine swell the sum of nauseating odors arising from the dirty-blood-soaked, rotting wooden floors, fruitful culture beds for the disease germs of men and animals.

Meat scraps were also found being shoveled into receptables from dirty floors where they were left to lie until again shoveled into barrels or into machines for chopping. These floors, it must be noted, were in most cases damp and soggy, in dark, ill-ventilated rooms, and the employees in utter ignorance of cleanliness or danger to health expectorated at will upon them. In a word, we saw meat shoveled from filthy wooden floors, piled on table rarely washed, pushed from room to room in rotton box carts, in all of which processes it was in the way of gathering dirt, splinters, floor filth, and the expectoration of tuberculous and other diseased workers. A very considerable portion of the meat so handled is sent out as smoked products and in the form of sausages, which are prepared to be eaten without being cooked.

A particularly glaring instance of uncleanliness was found in a room where the best grade of sausage was being prepared for export. It was made from carefully selected meats and was being prepared to be eaten uncooked. In this case the employee carted the chopped-up meat across a room in a barrow, the handles of which were filthy with grease. The meat was then thrown out upon tables, and the employee climbed upon the table, handled the meat with his unwashed hands, knelt with his dirty apron and trousers in contact with the meat he was spreading out, and, after he had finished his operation, again took hold of the dirty handles of the wheelbarrow went back for another load, and repeated this process indefinitely. Inquiry developed the fact that there was no water in this room at all, and the only method the man adopted for cleaning his hands was to rub them against his dirty apron or on his still filthier trousers.

As an extreme example of the entire disregard on the part of employees of any notion of cleanliness in handling dressed meat, we saw a hog that had just been killed, cleaned, washed, and started on its way to the cooling room fall from the sliding rail to a dirty wooden floor and slide part way into a filthy men's privy. It was picked up by two employees, placed upon a truck, carried into the cooling room and hung up with other carcasses, no effort being made to clean it.

In one well-known establishment we came upon fresh meat being shoveled into barrels, and a regular proportion being added of stale scraps that had lain on a dirty floor in the corner of a room for some days previous. In another establishment, equally well known, a long table was noted covered with several hundred pounds of cooked scraps of beef and other meats. Some of these meat scraps were dry, leathery, and unfit to be eaten; and in the heap were found pieces of pigskin, and even some bits of rope strands and other rubbish. Inquiry evoked the frank admission from the man in charge that this was to be ground up and used in making "potted ham."

Even the ordinary decencies of life are completely ignored. In practically all cases the doors of the toilet rooms open directly into the working rooms, the lavatories of men and women frequently adjoin, and the entrances are sometimes no more than a foot or two apart. In other cases there are no retiring rooms for women near where they work, and to reach the nearest it is necessary to go up or down a couple of flights of stairs. In one noticable instance the lavatory for the women working in several adjoining rooms was in a room in which men chiefly were employed, and every girl going to use this had to pass by the working places of dozens of male operatives and enter the door of which was not 6 feet from the working place of one of the men operatives. As previously noted, in the lavatories for men and women alike there are no partitions, but simply a long row of open seats.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1906.

MANY people living in West End and along the lines of the railroads west of this city are loud in their complaints of what they regard as the unnecessary blowing of whistles on the part of those having charge of locomotives. They say that the moderate blowing of these torturing devices would not be protested against, but that the wild and prolonged shrieking of engines attached to every train entering or leaving this city is uncalled for and is a source of untold annoyance, especially to sick people Whistles are, it is said, sometimes sounded for over a minute, the purpose of which is not apparent. Those who object to such procedures say if the practices are continued they will appeal to the officials in Washington for relief. In connection with the above it may be stated that there is considerable unnecessary whistle-blowing in Alexandria, not only by locomotives at depots, but at certain manufactories. No one but those working in such places can understand why it is necessary to blow a whistle for several minutes at five o'clock in the morning, as no one is supposed to go to work at that hour. At noon there are prolonged blasts, followed by others half an hour later and at the close of the day's work. It would seem that the simple act of turning on steam or shutting off the same would be all the notification necessary to the employes, and they are the only ones at all interested.

THE REPORT of Messrs. Reynolds and Neill concerning conditions in Chicago meat-packing houses, published on the first page of today's Gazette, will be read with interest by housekeepers who have been purchasing western meat products. Not since Frank Leslie portrayed the swill milk traffic in New York in the latter part of the fifties has the public read such an expose. For years the meat trust has practically driven all competition from the field, and people have in most instances been forced to buy meat, sausage, &c., which have been prepared amid dirt and by dirty people in Chicago packing houses. Apart from all this, there is every reason to believe that animals that have died in transitu, or which have been partly dead when they reached the packing houses have been slaughtered. It is a well-known fact that cattle or fowls after having been kept on trains for forty-eight hours, and often longer, are heated and not in a healthy condition for slaughtering. It is no uncommon thing for three or four cars of chickens to compose parts of freight trains passing through Alexandria. A certain percentage of the fowls are generally dead, while others are dying from overcrowding and heat. Potted chicken, an uncertain composition, is one of the products of western packing houses.

BEFORE the reading clerk of the House of representatives yesterday had uttered the last word of the President's message on the necessity for beef inspection, the gravel of the Speaker fell upon the desk with a resounding report, and he exclaimed: "The message is referred to the committee on agriculture, and the gentleman from Indiana is recognized." Startled and unprepared, the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Overstreet, rose and proposed that the rules be suspended while a measure of insignificant importance be considered by the House. This was Speaker Cannon's reception of the President's message insisting that drastic legislation should be enacted to prevent the beef packers who compose the beef trust from supplying to the American public beef from the carcasses of diseased animals, or canned goods containing unspeakable ingredients. In speaking of this summary action the Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says: "If there had been lacking a single chain in the circumstantial evidence connecting the Speaker of the House of Representatives with the nefarious plot to pass only such a law as may bear least heavily upon the packers and most heavily upon the public, it was furnished by this circumstance."

DR. JUSTUS O'HAGE, health commissioner of St. Paul, in an address before the Federation of Women's Clubs, in convention there Saturday, said that appendicitis was caused by germs from bad food, not by foreign substances lodged in the appendix, and that if twenty-four members of the drug trust and other food trusts would let him feed them on their food products he would guarantee that there would be twenty-funerals in a few days. "Appendicitis, you have been told, comes from the lodgment of seeds in the appendix. This is not true," he said; "it is purely bacteriological disease caused by germs from food we eat." Many will adopt Dr. O'Hage's theory and will now understand the cause of the rapid increase in the number of cases of appendicitis.

ACCORDING to statistics compiled by the bureau of labor, the average price of the necessities of life last year was higher than during any other year definitely recorded, 15.9 per cent. above the average of the 10 years from 1890 to 1900, 29.2 per cent. higher than the low level of 1897 and 2.6 per cent. higher than in 1904. This rapid rise in prices affects farm products, food, clothes, fuel, metals and implements, lumber and building materials, drugs and chemicals, house furnishing goods, etc. This virtually means that fortunes have shrunk 30 per cent. and that people whose incomes are the same as in 1896 are 30 per cent. poorer.

MR. TAWNEY, representative of the House appropriations committee, said last week that he had no conception of the rapidity with which federal policing and federal supervision of the domestic affairs of the people of the States is being extended until he had examined the estimates for appropriations for the next fiscal year. These provide for 3,113 inspectors and special agents at the compensation of $4,567,728. This country is rapidly becoming one of government office holders.

DELEGATES appointed by the Governors of ten southern States and representatives of many industries in the South met in New York yesterday and organized the Southern States Immigration Commission, to act as a clearing house for labor for the South. They should pay more attention to the quality than to the number of immigrants they send South, for many of these coming to this country now are unfit for citizenship in any State.

From Washington.

Washington, June 5.

When court convened this morning, Justice Gould excused the June panel until June 18, at which time it is expected the Green case now occupying the court's attention, will be closed. J. M. Master, superintendent of the railway mail service of the Postoffice Department, resumed the stand and was examined at length by Attorney Worthington concerning testimony given yesterday by Inspector Graff. He also testified concerning the business relations existing between Beavers and himself when he was chief clerk of the salary and allowance division. He stated that Mr. Beavers and himself acted upon orders from higher up, presumably from Perry Heath. He stated that Mr. Beavers had received orders from Heath with the initials of the Postmaster General directing that cancelling machines be installed in all third and fourth class postoffices throughout the country. It developed this morning that District Attorney Baker sent back to Noblesville, Indiana, the returned subpoena to summons Heath as a witness in this hearing. Baker thinks Heath is evading service.

A deluge of telegrams from railway men from all parts of the country protesting against the strict anti-pass amendment to the railroad rate bill as agreed to by the conferees, which will not permit the giving of passes to railroad employes or their families, came down upon the House today.

Just before the noon hour Consul-General Wynne took the stand. He stated that soon after he was appointed First Assistant Postmaster General, Green came to see him in relation to the purchase of Doremus' machines, in which Beavers took part in the discussion urging that an order be given for 200. Green said a large order would be in interest of economy. Wynne identified two letters ordering 200 machines and bearing the initials G. W. B. During cross examination by Worthington for the purpose of showing witness bias, Gould stopped proceedings and directed jury to retire. Worthington claimed evidence should go to jury tending to show that Wynne had pursuaded Beavers to plead guilty under an indictment in which Green and Beavers were named as defendants. Worthington asserted that Wynne had induced Beavers to plead guilty for the purpose of influencing the jury. The government urged that nothing in the case to show Wynne's bias and that he did not have a motive in seeing either defendant convicted. Justice Gould ruled that evidence could be admitted for the purpose of showing witnesses prejudices and that it was proper for the jury's consideration.

According to dispatches from Capt. Bowyer, of the U. S. cruiser Columbia at Colon, there has been a clash between officers of the marines and Panama native policemen. Just how serious it was is not divulged at the Navy Department. Bowyer says that two lieutenants of marines and a midshipman were involved on the American side, and that after an investigation prosecution of these officers has been abandoned. The governor of Panama has expressed regret and has promised to punish the Panama policemen, which Bowyer will insist upon.

Telling of daring hold-ups and fights with criminals that are not permitted to locate in any civilized place, the delegates to the tenth annual meeting of the Association of Railway Special Agents gathered at the Ebbitt House today. President W. G. Baldwin, of Philadelphia, was unable to be on hand, so F. M. Shafer, of Cincinnati, presided. District Commissioner West, and Major Sylvester, superintendent of the local police, welcomed the delegates.

Alexander Elliott, jr., until recently superintendent of the foundry of the Government Printing Office, died at his home early this morning.

Further advices received today by the State Department from Guatemala indicate that the insurgents have been repulsed at every point where they have attempted to engage the government forces. It is now apparent that the revolutionists made simultaneous attempts to enter Guatemala from Honduras, Mexico and Salvador, but their forces were invariably met and repulsed by the government troops. The Guatemalan legation here has received advices indicating the entire victory of the government army.

Late last evening the Vice President received the following dispatch from the Governor of Kansas:

"Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President:

"Hon. J. R. Burton has this day tendered his resignation as United States Senator from Kansas and I have accepted the same.

"E. W. HOCH, Governor of Kansas."

The Vice President laid this notification before the Senate as a part of its records shortly after the session opened today. In view of the receipt of this official dispatch the special meeting of the Senate committee on privileges and elections, which had been called for this morning at 11.30 to take action on the resolution providing for Burton's expulsion from the Senate, was deemed unnecessary and the notices were recalled.

A petition containing about 30 names was presented to the governor asking clemency on account of the youthfulness and frailness of the prisoner. He will be taken to King George Thursday night from the jail in Fredericksburg, where he is now confined for safe keeping, under military guard and executed.

THE LATE SENATOR GORMAN.

The death of Senator Gorman in Washington yesterday was noted in the Gazette of that day. Arthur Pue Gorman was born at Woodstock, Howard county, Md., March 11, 1839. His father was Peter Gorman and his mother Elizabeth A. Brown. At the age of 13 years, in 1852, his father, aided by General Hammond, the Congressman from his district, and William T. Hamilton, who was then in Congress, secured him a position in the House of Representatives as a page. It was here that he attracted the attention of Stephen A. Douglas, who became very much attached to him and obtained for him an appointment as page in the United States. He soon became a close and intimate friend of Mr. Douglas, his private secretary and a member of his household. Becoming postmaster of the Senate, later, he rendered valuable assistance to the Douglas party in the famous Kansas-Nebraska bill.

In the controversy between the Senate and President Johnson his sympathy was with the President, and he lost his position as postmaster.

He was, however, appointed collector of internal revenue for the Fifth district and was successful in collecting $150,000 in arrears.

At the close of the legislative session of 1874 he was appointed president of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, a position of great political influence, which helped to give him his hold on the democratic party in Maryland.

After his re-election to the State Senate in 1877 he conducted the adjustment of the differences between the State and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad over the capitation tax.

He became United States Senator in 1880, succeeding Hon. William Pinkney Whyte.

In 1884 he successfully conducted the national campaign which carried Cleveland to the White House. This service was recognized by President Cleveland, who practically gave the Senator distribution of federal offices in Maryland during his first term.

In 1890 he was largely instrumental in accomplishing the defeat of the federal elections measure, or "Force bill," for which he was given a silver service, bought through popular subscription by persons all over the State, and his re-election to the Senate followed.

In his third term he took a leading part in the recasting of the Wilson tariff bill, his ideas tending toward a moderate protective policy and, as the result of President Cleveland's dissatisfaction, he made a personal attack on the President in a famous speech.

This was followed by the defeat of the party in Maryland in 1895 and the election of Senator George L. Wellington. Mr. Gorman failed of re-election in 1898, being succeeded by Senator Louis E. McComas.

Before retiring, however, he was frequently consulted by President McKinley as leader of the minority at the beginning of the war with Spain.

March 4, 1903, he began his fourth term in the Senate and was selected as caucus chairman and minority leader.

In the Parker campaign he took an active part, having been regarded as a presidential possibility himself. After the convention he was in New York and in constant touch with the campaign managers and aided them by his experience and advice.

His last public service was when, as a State director of the Washington Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, he made the report which led to the sale of the State's stock.

Reception to Mr. Bryan.

A reception in which democrats from all over the country will be invited to take part will be tendered to Mr. William J. Bryan, in Madison Square Garden, New York, on his return from a trip around the world. William H. Hoge, of New York, chairman of the Commercial Travelers and Hotel Men's Anti trust League, yesterday received a letter from Mr. Bryan, written at Constantinople, in which he accepted the invitation of the league to be present at the reception, which will be under the auspices of the league. The executive committee of the league will hold a meeting today to discuss the preliminary plans. It is expected that Mr. Bryan will visit London in time to speak at a Fourth of July celebration and will arrive in New York about the first of August. Some States have already promised to send delegations, and it is expected that a large contingent of Missouri democrats will attend the reception, which is intended to be a national affair.

Plot Against Rulers.

When the Washington police and secret services officers found that some 60 supposed Italian anarchists whom the immigration authorities had under surveillance in Baltimore had disappeared, they instituted a vigorous search of nearby cities. One officer connected with the secret-service branch of the Maryland Immigration Bureau is in Washington in an endeavor to ascertain whether any of the suspected "Reds" who have disappeared from Baltimore are in the capital city. According to the secret service agent the attempted assasination of King Alfonso and the new Queen of Spain is believed to have been a part of an organized attempt by the "Reds" to do away with the rulers of the principal countries of the world. Included in the list in their order, detectives say from information they have obtained, are President Roosevelt, Emperor William, King Edward and the Czar of Russia.

Will Preach to Preachers.

Rev. John P. Brushingham, for nine years pastor of the First Methodist Church in Chicago, resigned his charge Sunday to enter upon a remarkably evangelistic campaign. He will travel about the west, preaching not to the public, but to preachers themselves. At the general conference of 1904 at Los Angeles it was decided to establish a "commission of aggressive evangelism," consisting of three bishops and one member from each general conference district. Dr. Brushingham was responsible in a large part for the organization of the commission, and is secretary and treasurer. He will travel with the bishops comprising the commission—Bishop Mallalieu, Bishop Wilson and Bishop Spellmeyer—addressing ministers at their conference gatherings and on occasions giving them direct help in their own churches.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Railroad Commissioners.

[Special Dispatch to the Alexandria Gazette.]

Richmond, Va., June 5.—The rate hearing commenced before the Corporation Commission today. All the big railroad attorneys and officials in state are here. Alfred P Thom is the leading counsel for the roads and Col. Braxton is representing the State with the Attorney General.

After a long debate between the counsel the commissions ruled that the companies must introduce evidence first. When adjournment was had for lunch Comptroller Coxe, of the N. & W. R. R. was on the stand. The hearing may last two months.

Double Murder.

New York, June 5.—John Kelly, aged 50, is dead, and Mary Kelly, aged 24, is fatally wounded as the result of a shooting affair at Ninety-second street, and Dahlgren Avenue, Brooklyn, this morning. The murderer, John Kilbride, ran through Fort Hamilton after the shooting, and the police believe that he has escaped in a small boat. It is said that some time ago Mrs. Kelly became fascinated with Kilbride, and was seen much in his company. Kelly finally became disheartened over the turn affairs had taken, and lost a number of positions. Yesterday he was evicted from his home and sought shelter at the home of a friend, John Keller. Early this morning Kilbride appeared at the Keller home and began to abuse Kelly, denouncing him as a feeble old fool, and a weight on his wife. At this point Mrs. Kelly appeared on the scene and ordered Kilbride from the house, and not dare attack her husband. Kilbride seemed to become insane from jealousy, when Kelly's wife took the part of her husband. He whipped out a revolver from his pocket and fired and the young woman reeled and fell into a chair. A second time Kilbride fired, and the bullet went through Kelly's heart, death resulting instantly. Kilbride then disappeared and all trace of him has been lost.

[Later Kilbride was arrested at Fort Hamilton, where he had been in hiding, since the shooting. He was taken to the Coney Island police court, where he was arranged and held without bail.]

Meat Packers Avenge Themselves.

Chicago, June 5.—Political destruction of President Roosevelt and all who acknowledge alliance with him in his fight on the packers is the plan of the millionaire proprietors of America's meat industry. As soon as J. Ogden Armour returns from Europe, the heads of the big concerns will meet and arrange a plan of action. It contemplates the enlistment of all the trusts and corporations at whom the administrative guns have been aimed. With the powerful organization of the millionaires invested in big industries, the captains of finance will endeavor to capture the machinery of whichever of the two big parties may be the most effectively utilized. According to a leading lawyer for the packers who was engaged in their defense in the recent trial before Judge Humphrey, the great capitalists of this country realize that Roosevelt is no longer trusted to represent their interests. Lately he has shown tendencies that are dangerously socialistic, they aver, and has demonstrated the peril of electing a man of radical mind to the presidency. The packers insist that the issue of the next campaign will be between the consumer who wants to gain at the loss of capitalists, and the united business interests of this country.

Effects of the Report

Chicago June 5.—One of the immediate effects of the President's disclosure of packing house conditions is seen in a frenzied attempt in at least three of the big plants to remedy the conditions condemned in the report. In a hurried manner, the toilet arrangements were renovated, floors cleaned, walls scraped, light and ventilation improved, and the surroundings of the workers in these three plants were improved fifty per cent in one day. Besides renovating the plumbing the packing companies have put up a variety of signs all over the plants enjoining cleanliness. One of these was in red letters as follows: "Keep clean; foremen must see that employes wash hands and keep clean." Hundreds of these signs were pasted all over the packing houses. The foremen were told that the rule against expectoration must be enforced or discharge would result. In the sales room of one company, was found signs giving this warning: "Employes getting meats dirty by using dirty tools or dragging on floor will be discharged." Another new rule posted was that forbidding the use of tobacco in all food-producting rooms.

Work on Big Sewer.

Capt. Warner, the diver who will place the pipes in position in the bottom of the river at the point where the big sewer will have its outlet into the Potomac a short distance above the naval powder magazine on the opposite side of the river above this city has carried his outfit to the site of the sewer and has started upon the preliminary work on the outlet. The big box-like arrangements have been sunk in the bottom of the river and it is stated that the sinking of the big pipes will be started shortly. As yet the pipes which will be sunk in the river bottom have not been delivered at the sewer outlet. They will be sunk three feet under the surface of the water at the shore and thirty feet below the surface at the channel. When the big pipes are lowered into position, Capt. Warner will go down to the bottom of the river and will make the connection between the pipes so that there will be no leaking at joints.

Izzet Pasha's Pledge.

Manchester, Eng., June 5.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Guardian in a dispatch to that newspaper says that Izzet Pasha, the Sultan's secretary, is making every effort to rehabilitate himself in the eyes of his master, after the disgrace caused by the Tabas boundary affair between Turkey and Egypt, and has pledged his word to the Sultan that before the year is finished he will bring the Khedive of Egypt to Constantinople. The Sultan has promised if this is accomplished to restore Izzet to favor.

Destructive Fire.

New York, June 5.—Three warehouses filled with cotton, and hemp, and belonging to the American Duck Trust Company, at Tompkinsville, S. I., were destroyed by fire this morning. It is estimated that the loss will reach $200,000. A number of other warehouses containing in the neighborhood of 100,000 bales of cotton and hemp were in danger of destruction but by hard work the firemen managed to check the flames before reaching them. The collapse of a roof fireman George Bralster, of engine company No. 3, sustained a fracture of the skull, and other injuries. He may die.

France and Morocco.

Paris, June 5.—The sending of a French warship to Tangier to demand reparation for the murder of a French citizen named Charbonnier, in Morocco, has not had the effect of bringing the Sultan to the point where he is ready to offer the satisfaction demanded. The government has now decided that further energetic measures shall be taken against Morocco, unless the government immediately satisfies the French demands.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 5.—The stock market was strong again all through the first hour, making six days of a continuous upward movement, and it was generally noted that the outside interests in the market has steadily increased as prices advanced. Altogether, the tone of the market was strong and the bull interests confident of easily reaching higher price levels.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 5.

SENATE.

Scenes which marked the latter days of great contest in the Senate over the railway rate regulation bill, attended the opening of the Senate today. Almost one thousand telegrams from railway men and railway organizations, protesting against the anti-pass provision in the rate bill, were presented.

Mr. Daniel characterized it as "a veritable snowstorm" and expressed the hope that the drastic provision complained of would be taken up for consideration without delay.

Mr. Money said he would vote against accepting the provision.

Mr. Tillman characterized the condition as "hysteria" and pointed out that the conferees had made the provision drastic because it was far preferable to the amendment adopted to the Senate, which would admit almost everybody to the pass privilege.

Mr. LaFollette introduced in the Senate today, a resolution directing the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the so-called grain elevator trust, with a view of discovering to what extent special favors in the form of rebates, discrimination in the matter of furnishing cars, side tracks and elevator privileges were being granted the elevator and grain buying and forwarding business. An appropriation of $25,000 was provided to cover the extra expense.

Upon request of its author, the resolution went to the table, subject to call.

The Senate this afternoon took up the report of the conference on the railroad rate bill after a spirited objection by Mr. Hale, who desired consideration of the naval bill.

Mr. Hale declared that the Senate intended to send the report back to conference, and Mr. Tillman, in charge of the report, announced he wanted to go back.

Mr. Hale demanded that the conferees disposses the bill of all new legislation, which, under the rules governing conferees, had no place there.

Mr. Tillman objected to having any Senator instruct him as to his duties.

Mr. Lodge and Mr. Foraker announced that they purposed criticising the report.

Later, by a vote of 26 to 20, the Senate displaced consideration of the conference report on the railway rate regulation bill while the motion was pending to return it to the conferees and began consideration of the naval appropriation bill.

Mr. Elkins, who stood shoulder with Mr. Tillman, in attempting to get the conference report out of the Senate declared warmly:

"You talk of getting away by July. You wont do it".

HOUSE.

The House devoted the first two hours of the session to the consideration and passage of bills under suspension of the rules.

Packers Issue Protest.

Eight meat packing establishments of Chicago last night issued a joint statement, replying to the charges made in the Neill and Reynolds report of their investigation of the packing plants and President Roosevelt's message to Congress. In this statement the packers declare that their plants are kept clean, their methods of manufacture are sanitary, their products wholesome and that for years doctors, chemists, sanitarians and official investigators from nearly every civilized nation on earth, who have made examinations of the manner in which the meat packing plants are conducted, have been entirely satisfied in every instance with the conditions existing in this industry. Despite this fact, the packers assert that they stand ready to adopt any practical suggestion in the line of improvement.

Battle of New Ross.

Today is the one hundred and eight anniversary of the memorable battle of New Ross, County Wexford, Ireland, of which the historian has so vividly portrayed and of which all Irishmen refer to with a deep feeling of pride. The principal combatants in this battle were the United Irish army under General Bagenal Harvey and the British troops commanded by Major-General Johnson. The battle was precipitated by the murder of a Mr Furlong, aide-de-camp to General Harvey, who was treachously shot while bearing a flag of truce to General Johnson, of the British soldiery. The battle lasted thirteen hours, and after being repulsed four times, and amid frightful carnage on both sides, the Irish completely routed the British and won for themselves a most glorious victory.

King Alfonso and His Army.

The populace of the Spanish capital is gradually recovering its composure, and the programme of wedding festivities is being carried out, although the nerve-racking tragedy of May 31 is likely to leave a lasting impression on the royal family as well as on the people in Madrid.

The principal event yesterday was the military review at Carabanchel camp, at which King Alfonso and Queen Victoria were present. The former, who wore the uniform of a captain general, and who was mounted on a handsome bay, galloped along the lines. His escort was composed of officers of all nations in variegated uniforms, Lieut. U. S. Grant, the American representative, being conspicuous in the white summer uniform of the United States army.

The Wardas regiment, which lost several of its officers and privates by the bomb explosion last Thursday, occupied the post of honor and was enthusiastically applauded. About 15,000 soldiers and sailors participated in the review.

The tribunes occupied by the members of the royal family, the princes, envoys and other noted personages were gorgeously decorated. Frederick W. Whitridge, the American special envoy, and Mrs. Whitridge and their daughters, in a vehicle drawn by four gaily caparisoned mules, were among those present.

The military review was followed by a musical competition yesterday afternoon and a gala ball last night at the palace of the Duchess Fernan Nunez, which was attended by the members of the Spanish royal family and the visiting princes and envoys.

Serious Charge.

Michael Qualter, an old soldier, aged 62 years, was committed to jail at Upper Marlboro, Md., yesterday by Justice Arthur Carr, in default of $1,000 bond, to await the action of the grand jury, upon the charge of felonious assault.

The charge was preferred by Lettie McIntyre, the young daughter of John McIntyre, of Branchville, Prince Georges county, an employe of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, Washington. The girl is 16 years of age today, it is stated, and the crime is alleged to have been committed on or about May 16.

The girl, in her testimony yesterday, swore that Qualter accomplished his purpose on two different occasions. The warrant was issued on the statement of the girl's father, she having confessed to her mother several days after the commission of the alleged assault.

Qualter, who was arrested at the Soldiers' Home Sunday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Wallace C. Raybold, denied the charge, although he admitted that he had acted in a familiar manner toward the girl. He had been discharged from the home for drinking, and was tramping through Branchville, when his condition appealed to Mr. McIntyre, who employed him to work about the house.

Borrowed $300,000 of Canfield.

Richard Canfield told under oath on the witness stand in New York yesterday how a gilded youth lost hundreds of thousands of dollars in various desperate conflicts with the "Tiger," in which he engaged in Canfield's establishments, notably at Newport. The young man's indebtedness amounted to $300,000. He settled the claim for $130,000.

"Three-fourths of the $300,000 which was owed to me," said Canfield, "was lost by this gentleman in my home at Newport. There was a great deal of borrowed money represented in this sum."

Canfield detailed how the scion of a millionaire dropped huge sums over the table, or needed a little extra pocket money, would draw freely upon the Canfield exchequer and give his notes for the amounts.

"The notes had never been seen by me," said Canfield. "They had been given to Mr Bucklin.

"I thought that Mr. Delahunty's charge of $10,000 for collecting $130,000 that I got out of the $300,000 was excessive.

"Oh, no, I did not have any dispute with him about it. I don't swap horses crossing a stream. He had helped himself, and there was no good discussing it any further."

Attempt to Wreck Bridge.

With a roar which shook buildings for many blocks around, eight sticks of dynamite were exploded last night under the east end of the long new trestles which carry the New York, Chicago and St Louis Railroad (Nickel Plate) tracks over the Cuyahoga Valley in Cleveland Ohio. The dynamite, it is believed, was placed there with the intention of wrecking the bridge, but the force of the exposion was downward instead of upward, and comparatively little damage was done. Work on the structure has been in progress for some months by nonunion men, the union structural iron workers having struck because of differences with the contractors. No arrest have been made.

Keeping His Grave Green.

Among the visitors to this city last Sunday were a gentleman and a lady, the former bearing a handsome bunch of flowers. They proceeded to Bethel Cemetery and went to the grave of William Nelson Toler upon which they placed the flowers. In a conversation with a resident of this city who was in the cemetery at the time the stranger said he was William B. Douglas, of Brooklyn, and that during the civil war he was an officer in the Fourteenth New York Regiment, a command President Davis termed "red-legged devils" at the first battle of Bull Run. Toler, Douglas said, was an officer in General J. E. B. Stuart's command, and in one of the engagements had attempted to kill him (Douglas) At the close of the conflict the wearer of the blue and the wearer of the gray met and became life-long friends. Toler died about five years ago and on each succeeding year the ex-federal officer has come here and placed flowers upon his mound. Yesterday before he left he handed the superintendent of the cemetery a one-dollar bill and told him to keep the grave of his old friend in order; he also said he would return next month when he intended to place a marble coping around the grave, and every year so long as he lived he would visit the mound and place flowers upon it.

Arlington Institute.

The commencement exercises of Arlington Institute took place yesterday. In the morning the report of each pupil for the year was given; four compositions, the best from each class, were read by Miss Julia Cone, Miss Laura Preston, Miss Louise Rixey and Miss Eleanor Field, and refreshments were served.

The evening programme was given chiefly by the graduates according to custom.

Miss Mary Hopkins read a paper on Shakespeare's Three Greatest Villians, and Miss Jean Willis one entitled "Possibility." Miss Annie Troth gave a recitation, "The Herald Angels."

Miss Chandlee then presented the graduating pins to Miss Nancy Gordon Jones, of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Jean C. Willis, of Summit Point W. Va.; Miss Annie Troth, of Accotink, Va.; Miss Mary R. Hopkins, of Highland, Maryland, and Misses Kitty Barrett and Hattie Douglas, of Alexandria.

Death of Mr. Whaley.

Mr. Robert Whaley, a former resident of this city, but who had recently lived in Crookston, Minn., died in that place last Friday night. The deceased had been a sufferer from consumption. He leaves a widow and two children—a girl about five years old and a baby boy. Mr. Whaley was chief clerk in the Alexandria postoffice for several years, but the state of his health rendered it inadvisable for him to remain in this climate, and about three years ago, at his own request, he changed places with Mr. Carl Neptune, an employee in the Crookston postoffice, the latter coming to Alexandria and Mr. Whaley going to the former place. He apparently benefitted by the change, but the insidious malady from which he suffered later again developed. The deceased was a courteous and accommodating gentleman, a fact attested by all who had intercourse with him officially or socially, and this announcement will be read with sincere regret by all who knew him. He was a consistent and earnest member of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city.

Killed by a Train.

Engineer John Coleman, of the Southern Railway, last night discovered the body of a colored man on the track a short distance this side of Seminary station, about two miles west of this city The Fairfax authorities were notified and this morning Justice Stuart made an examination of the remains and investigated the circumstances in connection with the discovery of the body. From a receipt for a pair of pantaloons from the Imperial Tailors of Washington in the pocket of the dead man it was found that his name was L. Blake; forty-five cents were also found on his person. The deceased was about 25 years old. There is reason to believe that Blake had been sitting on the track whittling a stick and, falling asleep, had been struck by a passing train. The remains were turned over to Demaine & Son in this city for interment.

Federation of Labor.

The Virginia State Federation of Labor met in annual session at the headquarters of the Alexandria Trades Council in the Alexandria National Bank building this morning at 10 o'clock. President Field, of Richmond, presided. Delegates from various cities in the State were present. The following are the delegates from the Alexandria Trades Council: Messrs. Howard T. Colvin, George Bontz, C. A. Howard, R. M. Prettyman and J. T. Harrison. A. D. Lyles represents confectioners; J. L. Proctor, painters, decorators and paperhangers, and Raymond Cleveland carpenters and joiners. An open meeting will be held next Thursday night at the Opera House.

Y. M. S. L. Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum will be given on the 14th instant to River View. The Lyceum's excursions have always been looked forward to with pleasure by hundreds of Alexandrians, and it is the desire of the committee having charge of this one to make it surpass even those given in former years. With this object in view no pains or expense will be spared. In addition to the numerous attractions at the View baseball and various other features are being arranged for.

People living on Henry street south of Wolfe complain that locomotives at times partly block that intersection.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the officers and teachers of Christ Church Sunday School on Sunday, June 3rd, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as the late Mr. Ethelbert Milburn served this Sunday School so long and so faithfully we deem a public recognition of his services should be made that others may know that we value the services of a faithful worker. For fifteen years he had been punctual and always in his place, even though at times his health was such that others would have remained away; that he always took an active part in the work, being not only ready and willing, but cheerfully, to do what he could to further the interests of the school, and in every way possible was a help and support to the work and to the superintendent.

Resolved, That in view of such faithful service, we trust that as God has seen fit to remove him from our midst he will put it into the heart of some other member of our church to volunteer to fill this place thus left vacant, who, following the example of Mr. Milburn, may help to carry on the work of the Master in instructing and guiding the youthful minds committed to our charge.

Resolved, That our deepest sympathy be extended to the family of our departed brother and that by God's help they may bear their sorrow as true followers of our risen Lord.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family and that they be published in the Alexandria Gazette.

Whitsuntide, 1906.

Are You on The List?

When the treasurer's list of poll-tax payers is posted read it to see if your name is on it. If it is not, and you have paid your tax, see at once to the omission. Here is how to get on it:

Within thirty days after the list has been posted any person who shall have paid his capitation tax, but whose name is omitted from the certified list, may, after five days' written notice to the treasurer, apply to the circuit court, or to the judge thereof in vacation, to have the same corrected and his name entered thereon, which application the court or judge shall promptly hear and decide.

The treasurer, unintentionally, may omit your name from the list. Or the printer who sets up the names, or the clerk who copies the treasurer's list may make a mistake.

Luna Park.

Another large concourse of people from Alexandria, Washington and the surrounding country visited Luna Park yesterday and last night, all of whom are profuse in attestations of their pleasant experience. There are many sources of interest and enjoyment on the grounds—something to suit all tastes—and old and young are assured genuine pleasure. The illumination at night is a picture not soon to be forgotten. The innumerable electric lights, searchlights, etc., form a dazzling picture. The music, which is superb, is one of the prominent features. The best of order is preserved and everything possible is done to afford visitors innocent enjoyment. The resort can be reached from either city in a few minutes and trains are run almost in sections for the convenience of patrons.

Confederate Veterans.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night.

The several committees on the observance of Memorial Day made their reports and were discharged.

The committee appointed to draft resolutions on the death of Comrade Chas. G. Schafer reported and the resolutions were ordered to be placed on the minutes of the camp and a copy sent to the family.

The thanks of the camp were tendered to Mr. R. L. Myers for courtesies extended on Memorial Day; also to the ladies and gentlemen who composed the choir on that day which formed an interesting feature of the exercises.

Wedding.

Mr. Arthur W. Pierson, of Pittsburg, and Miss Mary Shertzer, daughter of Mr. J. H. Shertzer, formerly of Hayfield, Fairfax county, were married this morning at Christ Church, Rev. W. J. Morton officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Cora Shertzer, and Dr. Wm. Rogers acted as best man. Among those who attended the wedding were Mrs. W. E Clark, Miss Blanche Hoops, the Misses Herbert, Mrs. Alfonzo Younge, jr., and Mr. Harry Thomas, of Washington, and Miss Katherine Newman, of New York. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Pierson left for their home in Pittsburg

Alarm of Fire

The alarm of fire about seven o'clock yesterday evening was caused by a fire in Lowenbach & Bros'. store, southwest corner of King and Alfred streets. The damage was slight. Later a telegraph pole on King street, about a square east, was found to be burning. A lineman ascended the pole and extinguished the flames which had been caused by crossed wires.

Police Court.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning, Justice Caton, Chief Goods and Officers Young and Roberts having been summoned to Manassas as witnesses for the Commonwealth in the case of William Whalen now on trial at that place for breaking into cars. A session of the Police Court will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

To Honor Mt. Vernon.

President Roosevelt has ordered that the naval regulations contain a provision for extraordinary ceremonies on board all vessels of the navy when passing along the Potomac river by the tomb of Washington at Mount Vernon. The President has ordered that whenever ships pass Mount Vernon the marine guard shall stand at attention with arms presented; the ship's bell shall be tolled and the buglar sound "taps" in respect to the remains of George Washington. These ceremonies have, in the past, been followed on board war ships passing the tomb of Washington, but only as a custom of the navy and not because there was any regulation directed their observance. In the future it will be mandatory that the ceremony be had.

ALL SICK WOMEN

SHOULD READ MRS. FOX'S LETTER

In All Parts of the United States Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Effected Similar Cures.

Many wonderful cures of female ills are continually coming to light which have been brought about by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and through the advice of Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., which is given to sick women absolutely free of charge.

The present Mrs. Pinkham has for twenty-five years made a study of the ills of her sex; she has consulted with and advised thousands of suffering women, who to-day owe not only their health but even life to her helpful advice.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham

"I suffered for a long time with female trouble, and finally was told by my physician that I had a tumor. I did not want to submit to an operation, so wrote you for advice. I received your letter and did as you told me, and to-day I am completely cured. My doctor says the tumor has disappeared, and I am once more a well woman. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world."

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. She asks nothing in return for her advice. It is absolutely free, and to thousands of women has proved to be more precious than gold.

Lunching In Congress.

Visitors in Washington nearly always call upon the congressman from their district, and the latter, if of hospitable turn, frequently invites them to luncheon in the congress restaurant, a privilege highly prized by the average visitor. Once a member of women called upon a wealthy congressman and were duly invited to have luncheon with him, which they promptly and gladly accepted, and when seated proceeded to order a luncheon substantial enough for day laborers. When the check for the luncheon was handed to the congressman and he handed a bill for the amount to the waiter, one of the women remarked that she thought congressmen did not have to pay for their meals there or she would not have ordered so much. The congressman, says the narrator, explained that paying for luncheons was one of the pleasant privileges which were still permitted to the congressmen by an indulgent government and that it was one which they especially enjoyed. "And visitors help us enjoy it, too," he added.—Baltimore American.

Contagion and Infection.

The terms contagion and infection are too often used promiscuously, though they are by no means synonymous. The dissemination of mycotic diseases takes place in different ways. There are those which cannot be communicated from person to person, but spread only by the microbic cause invading the individual. To this class belong malarial fevers produced by spasmodia. There are, secondly, those which are not communicable from person to person, but through external carriers only, such as soil, water, food, air, clothing and utensils. To that class belong yellow fever and Asiatic cholera. They are infectious. There are, finally, those which may be transmitted directly from a person or indirectly through carriers. To this class belong scarlet fever, measles, diphtheria, variola, influenza, erysipelas and varicella, perhaps also whooping cough. They are contagious and infectious.

Courting Customs of Siam.

In Siam the lighting of a cigar indicates a betrothal. In that country a person wishing to become engaged to the girl of his choice offers her a flower or takes a light from a cigar or cigarette if she happens to have one in her mouth, and thereupon, provided there is no impediment, steps are at once taken to arrange for the payment of the dowry. The families of the bride and bridegroom have each to provide a considerable sum. In Calabria, as in many parts of India, a lighted taper or a lighted pipe betokens the acceptance of the suitor for the hand of a lady in marriage. In Siberia it is the custom that when a suitor has been accepted by a girl she presents him with a box of cigars and a pair of slippers as a sign that he is to be master in the house.

Japan's Pancake Women.

One of the familiar sights on the streets of a Japanese town is the pancake woman, who, with her little brazier of coals and her tiny frying pan, is usually found on a corner not far from a school. She has a bowl full of delicious batter, a ladle and a cake turner, and there is apt to be a hungry crowd around her little stand as soon as school is out, for not many of the children are able to resist the smell of the crisp pancakes, at least if they have any money. For a small coin worth only a fraction of one of our pennies a child may fry and turn his own cakes, and happy is the one who has a number of coins in his little kimono sleeve and can fry and eat to his heart's content.

Official Correspondence.

A fourth class postmaster—and he doesn't live in Billville—sent the following to headquarters in Washington:

"This wil make three times that I've told you I'm laid up with a bad leg, havin' shot myself in the left leg—the one that was wounded in the war—while I wuz tryin' to kill a squirrel for my breakfast, and I will not be besides, I don't git much holiday nohow!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Scotland Yard.

Scotland Yard, widely known as the headquarters of the London police, is a historical place, said to have been the site of a palace where kings of Scotland were received when they came to London. It is near the banqueting hall, Whitehall. The Scotch kings retained possession of it from 959 till the rebellion of William of Scotland. Milton, Sir Christopher Wren and other notables lived in Scotland Yard.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50 and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.
